SECTION D BOARD OF DIRECTORS

ARTICLE 11
COMPOSITION - TERM

1. The Company is managed by the Board of Directors, consisting of five (5) to seven (7) members. The members are distinguished to executive, non-executive, and independent non-executive in accordance with the defined in article 5 under the law 4706/2020. The independent non-executive members are appointed in accordance with the provisions of article 9 of Law 4706/2020 and they should not be less than the one third (1/3) of the total number of Board of Directors members, and at every case should not be less than two (2).
2. The members of the Board of Directors are elected by the General Meeting of the Company's Shareholders for a three-year term and are always re-electable and freely revocable.
3. A member of the Board of Directors may also be a legal entity. In the latter case, the legal entity is required to designate a natural person to exercise its powers as a member of the Board of Directors.
4. The members of the Board of Directors must meet the criteria set out in the Company's Fit and Proper Policy and indicatively related to ethics, reputation, adequacy of member's knowledge, their skills, judgement independence and experience in performing their duties, as well as the conditions set by Law 4706/2020, such as the absence, during the last year before or after their election, of a final court decision recognizing their liability for malicious transactions of a company or an unlisted company of Law 4548 / 2018 with affiliate parties. In addition, it is forbidden for the Board of Directors members to be executives, employees or representatives of companies who have related purposes with the Company.
5. The members of the Board of Directors and any third person to whom powers have been delegated by it, in accordance with article 87 of Law 4548/2018, must comply with the law, the articles of association and the legal decisions of the general meeting, in the exercise of their duties and responsibilities. They are required to manage corporate affairs in order to promote the corporate interest, to supervise the implementation of the decisions of the Board of Directors and the General Meeting and to inform the other members of the Board of Directors about corporate affairs.
6. The members of the Board of Directors participate in the mandatory by Law Board Committees of the Company, in accordance with article 10 of Law 4706/2020, but also in other Committees that are established following decisions of the Board of Directors.
7. In the context of the election of the members of the Board of Directors and for the update of the investors, the procedure provided in article 18 of Law 4706/2020 is observed.

ARTICLE 12

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The Board of Directors has the management (administration and disposal) of the Company's property and the representation of the Company. It decides on general issues concerning the Company within the framework of the business scope, except for those which, according to the law or these Articles of Association, belong to the exclusive competence of the General Meeting.
2. The Board of Directors approves the Company's Rules of Operation and the Fit and Proper Policy of the Board of Directors members, with minimum content the defined in the Corporate Governance provisions, as they as they apply in each case and ensures the adequate, efficient, and effective operation of the Company's Internal Control System.
3. The Board of Directors appoints and supervises the implementation of the corporate governance system of articles 1 to 24 of Law 4706/2020, monitors and periodically evaluates its implementation and effectiveness at least every three (3) financial years, taking appropriate actions to address deficiencies. It also ensures the adequate and effective operation of the Company's Internal Control System and ensures that the functions that constitute the Internal Control System are independent of the business sectors that they control and have the appropriate financial and human resources, as well as the powers for their effective operation, in accordance with their role. The lines of reference and the allocation of responsibilities shall be clear, enforceable and duly documented.
4. The Board of Directors may, in writing only, entrust the exercise of all its powers and competencies (other than those requiring collective action) and the representation of the Company to one or more persons, members thereof or not, while at the same time determining the extent of this assignment. The aforementioned persons, in case they are its members, must meet the criteria set out in the Company's Fit and Proper Policy and must not have been issued within one (1) year, before or before their election, a final court decision acknowledging the guilt for malicious transactions of a Company or a non-listed company of Law 4548/2018 with related parties, and in case they are third parties, not to have been issued within one (1) year, before or after their election, a final court decision recognizing their fault for malicious transactions of a Company or a non-listed company of Law 4548/2018 with related parties. These persons may further delegate the exercise of the powers entrusted to them, or part of them, to other members of the Board of Directors, employees of the Company or third parties if this is provided for in the relevant decision of the Board of Directors.
5. The Board of Directors may delegate internal control of the Company to one or more persons. The head of the internal audit unit is appointed by the Company's Board of Directors, following a proposal by the audit committee, is a full-time and exclusive employee, personally and functionally independent and objective in the performance of his duties and has the appropriate knowledge and relevant professional experience. He/She is administratively subordinate to the CEO and functionally to the audit committee. As head of the internal audit unit, he/she cannot be a member of the Board of Directors or a member with voting rights in permanent committees of the Company and have close ties with anyone holding one of the above capacities in the Company or in a company of the Group.

ARTICLE 13

FORMATION INTO BODY

1. The Board of Directors, immediately after its election, meets and is constituted into body, appointing among its members a Chairman and a Vice-Chairman. The Chairman of the Board of Directors is a non-executive member. In the event that the Board of Directors, by way of derogation from paragraph 1 of article 8 of l. 4706/2020, appoints as Chairman one of the executive members of the Board of Directors, it must appoint a Vice-Chairman from among the non-executive members, in accordance with article 8 of Law 4706/2020.
2. The Board of Directors may elect one or two Chief Executive Officers from among its members, determining at the same time their responsibilities, and determines and authorizes the persons who sign in the name and on behalf of the Company, and binding the Company.
3. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall direct the meetings. The Chairman, when absent or impeded, is substituted, in his / her duties, by the Vice-Chairman and the latter, when impeded, is substituted, by virtue of a Board resolution, by the Chief Executive Officer or another member of the Board appointed by the Board of Directors. In case that the Chairman of the BoD is an executive member, then the Vice-Chairman of the BoD substitutes him/her only in his non-executive responsibilities.
4. The Board of Directors may be assisted in its work by a Company Secretary, who may be a member of the Board, or a third person appointed by the Board's decision.

ARTICLE 14

REPLACEMENT OF BOARD MEMBERS

1. In case of resignation, death, disqualification for any reason, or declared in default by a decision of the Board of Directors, due to unjustified absence from its meetings for three consecutive months, or by any other way of loss of membership of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors may continue to manage and represent the Company without replacing the missing members if the remaining members are at least five (5).
2. If the members of the Board of Directors are reduced to less than five (5) and if the remaining members are at least three (3), the Board of Directors is obliged to elect replacements for the remainder of the term in office, for the members being replaced at least up to the number of five (5). The election decision shall be published in accordance with article 13 of Law 4548/2018, as applicable, and shall be announced by the Board of Directors at the next General Meeting, which may replace the elected persons even if no relevant issue has been included in the agenda. However, all acts of the members of the Board of Directors, elected in this way, are considered valid even if the members are replaced by the General Meeting.

3. In the event of an unjustified absence of an independent member at least two (2) consecutive meetings of the Board of Directors, this member shall be deemed to resign. Such resignation shall be determined by a decision of the Board of Directors, which shall replace the member in accordance with the procedure laid down in par. 4 article 9 of Law 4706/2020.
